IS IT ART YET?

"Art . . . is the desire of a man to express himself, to record the reactions of his personality to the world he lives in."

— Amy Lowell, Tendencies in Modern American Poetry (1917).†

"A great writer named Neal Stephenson said that America does four things better than any other country in the world: rock music, movies, software and high-speed pizza delivery. All of these are sacred American art forms. Let's return to our purity and our idealism while we have this shot."

— Courtney Love

My own record?

Rock music? – ✓

Movies? – "Halfway there!"

Software? – ✓

High-Speed Pizza Delivery? – ✓

So... "liberating" my own mental health records in a creative way is... ah... it's like a part of, ah, whatchamacallit? ... oh yeah!

MY ART

PS: I guess it's also in the public interest to expose malpractice in medicine and the abuse of those "presumed mentally ill," wot?
