"To deny or subdue desire Results in a uncontrollable urge that you will act upon..."

Well, I have had some unpleasant history linked to repressed awareness of what I am, for starters, being a trans woman? But... I don't think sublimation of desire leads to uncontrollable urges?

Also, "no secrets" lol: I have none. I suppose the compensation for a lack of mystery which might accompany being an "open book" is that this is a very, very long work, with bits that remain obscure on re-reading, and this obscurity cannot be solely attributed to the stylistic quirks that crop up continually...

Gee, that's why it's called "musing", I guess? A muse, or daimon, is not something you saddle up, spur, and cry "giddyup!" to get someplace. Naw, it's vice versa.

Have a great day, OK?

thanks,
bblayk
