"Bones", season six episode 19, introduces a new character so hot he...well, let's not go there!

Geoff Stults stars as an Iraq war veteran who has developed a strange ability to find things following a head injury in combat. He is criminally hot. Check two screen shots from the show. Show is from 2011 putting him at age 33.

On an odd side note Facebook has a new feature of doing a face scan on photos posted and then tagging them with a friend's name if they appear to be that friend. For unclear reason FB decided the photos below were of my friend Bonze Anne Rose Blayk. I'm not seeing it but if Bonze can pull off this look I'd bag the whole gender change thing and enjoy the thousands of women trying to jump my bones.

Anna Silk – Thanks to Lost Girl Fans

great show love how it deals with your character being a bisexual. CAN't wait to see what surprises will come in season 4

Nerissa Belcher Bo looks like my first wife. My second wife was also gorgeous but in a tall, Blonde ice queen way.

Nerissa Belcher I do not understand unisexuality. Imagine being interested only in Geoff/David vs. only in Anna.

1) I'm betting it's the cheekbones
2) No.

PS: My attitude towards any and all surgery at this time is: "It's up to Dick."

Only time will tell.

Martha Taranto The only thing I don't like about it is that I never knew I was hot until I was 30. What a waste. I could have had so much fun.

Nerissa Belcher "'Dick' is the name for Bonze's cat."

I'm feeling mildly offended by this

I'm feeling my way towards a prudently-worded objection

I'm feeling like

oh. my. god. IT'S TRUE

I want to "own" this cat

(you know what that implies about "Who's the Boss?")
